SOME VERY SALTY TESTIMONY.

What Frank Dunham and Miner Manus Say About Their Connection with the Case-Inside Facts Brought Out.

The trial of an interesting case began yesterday before Judge McKinley for insanity, and was committed to Stockton. He is crazy on religion and is constantly endeavoring to preach. He makes it so much of a personal matter, however, that he is at times violent and dangerous.

A divorce was granted by default against Ralph A. Ely and wife to foreclose a mortgage for $200.

The Los Angeles Construction Company began suit against the Pacific Railroad Company to obtain judgment for $147,499 allowed to be due for grading on Aliso street.

W. H. Stewart began suit against H. Ernest et al. to foreclose a mortgage for $300.

Julia S. Coley began suit against D. W. Field, administrator of the estate of H. P. Richmond, to quiet the title to certain lots.

J. G. Miller began suit against W. J. Fouke upon three promissory notes, for $50, $150 and $211.75 respectively.

A petition was filed by Thomas L. Gooch to be appointed administrator of the estate of H. D. Hooper.

SANTA MONICA.

Second Day's Proceedings of the Summer School—Persons.

SANTA MONICA, July 15.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] The attendance today was good, many new teachers being present from various sections of the Union. Miss Scott of the Detroit Normal, and Mrs. Burt of Pasadena and many other educators of note were in attendance, and the session will undoubtedly be a very successful one.

Our station agent, D. H. Smith, has rented the Abbott cottage, on Third street, where his mother, Mrs. W. C. Smith, will spend the summer months.

W. H. Perry and family are encamped at the Hancock cottage on the bluff in South Santa Monica. Mr. and Mrs. Modini-Wood are visiting them; also Miss Mary Brown, niece of Dr. Salisbury of Los Angeles.

Angus Boyd of Santa Cruz, the famous swimmer, who gave lessons here several years ago, and has been spending several days with friends at one hundred stockholders being present.

Reports were submitted by President E. L. Stern, Secretary T. H. Ward, the attorneys, Graves, O'Malley and Shanks and the expert accountant, W. R. Blackman.

It was shown that the association had just closed the most successful year of its existence. In July, 1880, it began with a capital fund of $243,200. The total amount of money now loaned out is $276,800. Number of loans made to date, 96; number of borrowers, 74; number of members, 228. During the past year there were 83 loans made, aggregating $92,000. The highest premium paid during the year was 26 per cent., the lowest 18 per cent., making an average of 20.53 per cent.

The plunge is being painted, and will present a very attractive appearance when completed.

Mrs. A. J. Bucker of Los Angeles is occupying her summer home on South Beach.

H. F. Rile, who photographed our fire laddies on the Fourth, has them finished and on exhibition at his gallery. The work is fine group.

Judge Richard Donegan and family of East Los Angeles have rented a cottage on the beach, where they will spend the summer months.

Will A. Nash, city editor of the San Bernardino Times-Index, has been spending a few days here, the guest of Miss Smith on Long Beach.

Miss Georgie Bell, daughter of Horace Bell, accompanied by her sisters, Misses Daisy and Lillie, and brothers, Masters Canby and Walter, will spend a few weeks on North Beach.

Mease, Beerman, Chapman, F. Hobart, H. Stoll, H. Reynolds and W. E. Porter, and their families, are located adjacent to each other on North Beach and form a little village by themselves.

A. E. McCarter, M. M. Cobb and J. C. Neilson spent Sunday here, the guests of friends on South Beach.

Dad Feathers, an old-time Southern Pacific engineer, paid the beach a visit today.

Prof. Dickinson gave an interesting scientific lecture upon the elements of the universe and their relations to one another. The Professor was in a very happy mood, and was listened to attentively by all present.

Prof. Monroe lectured on reading and numbers, elucidating many interesting points, and proved beyond a doubt that it was the province of the teacher to get the pupils to think and not a mere repetition of words.

Mrs. Plummer followed in a short exercise on the elementary vowel sounds, and the proper method of teaching the same.

Mrs. J. Powell Rice spoke of teaching singing, and explained the use of colors in representing tones, and then drilled the class in sight singing by holding before the class colors representing three tones. All of her work is methodical and is the result of successful experience in teaching. Her hour was a particularly interesting one, and furnished much food for future days.

Miss Pitt gave an exercise in clay modeling, which was also equally interesting.

The witness was a little bit confused over this question; but, finally gathered himself together and said part of it was true and part of it was not. He said that he did say that the best thing Strain could do would be to buy him out and join Cowley and Baker, and that he could make a homestead stick on the land.

Mr. McManus, the miner, testified that he was employed to work on the claim, and got out some ore. He said he examined the claim very thoroughly and found good ore. He claimed that the vein was large enough to convince him that it was a good claim. He admitted, however, that it would be very expensive to work it. On being shown a large piece of ore, he testified that he dug it out of the ground himself, and considered it good pay ore.

There was some further testimony of an unimpeachable character, when court adjourned for the day.

AN ASSAULT CASE.

The examination of Felipe Garcia, charged with assault with a deadly weapon upon Chrysanthus Alarcón, was begun in Justice Savage's court yesterday afternoon. There were some singular developments in the case, which has a woman at the bottom of it. The parties live at what is known as the "Grapes," about twenty-five miles west of Santa Monica, in the mountains. It seems that Alarcón's wife was formerly very much attached to Garcia, and lived with him. Having met Alarcón, however, she was finally induced to leave Garcia, and was married to Alarcón by justice of the peace. After some experience with her liege lord she met Garcia again, and her old flame for him revived, so that she left her husband and went back to live with Garcia.

June 23rd, while Garcia and several others were in a wagon coming to town they met Alarcón and hot words passed between the two.

The women were along, and the difficulty finally resulted, it is alleged, in Garcia pulling a pistol, when Alarcón ran away.

Several witnesses were examined yesterday, and the testimony was somewhat conflicting. Some of them swore that Garcia had a pistol, and others swore that he had not. The case will be resumed at 10 o'clock this morning.

NOTES.

F. Duran and C. Duran were yesterday found guilty by Justice Savage of stealing $30 worth of hay, and will be sentenced today.

An information was filed yesterday against Clayton White, charging him with an assault with intent to murder his wife. He will be arraigned July 17th.

An information was filed by the District Attorney yesterday against E. M. Funk, charging him with obtaining property under false representation. His arraignment was set for July 17th.

Sophia Baden, a native of Germany, was admitted to citizenship yesterday by Judge McKinley.

Judge McKinley granted a divorce yesterday to Mrs. A. M. Paulsen from her husband, W. F. Paulsen, on the ground of desertion. It was a default case.

Thomas C. Fielding was examined

RAILROAD NOTES.

A. MOVE TO IMPROVE CATALINA ISLAND—PERSONAL NOTES.

There is a move on foot to make a second Coney Island of Catalina Island. Several members of the Chamber of Commerce have been in correspondence with the owners of Coney Island, and are trying to induce them to come out here and take a look at Catalina. It is believed that it can be made one of the finest winter resorts in the world, and everybody knows that it is the most delightful summer resort on the coast. The scheme is to plant trees, build roads and drives and make parks. The island can be stocked with game of all kinds, and it is believed that people familiar with the island will spend a portion of their time on the island. An effort will also be made to induce the Santa Fe Company to take a hand in the improvement of this beautiful spot, and, as that company has made up its mind to do all in its power for this section of the country, the chances are that it will take stock in the scheme if anything is ever done.

NOTES.

CENSUS SUPERVISOR MURRAY of New York city says the women engaged as census enumerators did splendid work, and he regrets that he did not appoint all women. Some of the men resigned because of fatigue and the intense heat, but no woman made such complaint.

PEANUTS have been found a profitable crop in Southern California, especially in Orange county. They ought to pay well this year, as, according to an eastern paper, the visible supply of peanuts is only 400,000 bushels, against 900,000 last year at this date, and the year before 1,200,000.

It is said that Spain is now desirous of selling Cuba to the United States for a good round sum. The question is, whether the United States wants Cuba. Our territory is already extensive enough and our interests so varied as to give the Government all it can do without adding further complications.

REPRESENTATIVE VANDEVER has introduced a bill in the House granting a pension of $3000 a year to Gen. Fremont's widow. It would be a deserved tribute to the memory of a man who has done the State much service. It may not, however, be easy to get through a bill for the whole amount per year named in this measure.

A CORRESPONDENT gives his opinion that the City Council should take care of the roadways and sidewalks on all graded streets and mentions a number of graded streets which are rapidly becoming covered with weeds, thus giving the city a dead, "played-out" appearance. It certainly pays to keep the streets of a city in good order, as otherwise many visitors receive a bad impression of a place and are deterred from settling or investing.

A RAILROAD man, who is an agent for an eastern road doing business with all the western, southwestern and northwestern trunk lines, says that 70 per cent. of the emigrant travel goes to the Northwest. If we did our whole duty in this section, the situation would be reversed, and at least 70 per cent. of the emigrants would come to the Southwest, which is fully 70 per cent. more desirable, in every way, than the Northwest.

OUR WATER SUPPLY.

On account of the importance and timeliness of the water question—a question of the first magnitude to the city, now and in the future—large space is given today to a description of the present system of the City Water Company. The points of the article were mainly obtained from the company itself, and it is unnecessary to say that the description given is therefore as favorable to the existing system as the facts will justify.

The extent and completeness of the system will surprise many citizens, even old residents, and gives some idea of the nature and value of the property that will ultimately fall into the hands of the city by the terms of the charter.

The question of the city's acquiring this property, even possibly before the expiration of the eight years or so during which the company's franchise is still to run, and also of acquiring other systems and sources of supply, and consolidating the whole into one general committee of citizens. This committee and its various subcommittees are patiently at work on the large problem, with the aim of doing a substantial service to the city and all its people. They aim to devise a plan that will enable the municipality to become the complete owner of its entire water supply, whether in sight, subterranean or prospective, without crippling the corporation in its finances, and without injustice to private individuals or companies, and yet firmly asserting the superior rights of the public over those of private persons or combinations.

In the course of the investigations now going on at the hands of the citizens' committee, it need not surprise anybody if facts are developed touching some of the means of our present water supply, its sources, quality, quantity and cost, which will be found new and startling, and possibly at variance with preconceived notions in some quarters.

The investigation, at any rate, will do good; and if it results in finally placing the ownership, control and distribution of the entire water supply in the hands of the people, giving them a pure and abundant water at moderate prices, a great public good will have been achieved.

ARIZONA AND NEVADA.

In an interview published in yesterday's TIMES, Secretary Murphy of Arizona admitted that the population of that Territory would probably not go over sixty thousand. It will more likely be under that figure; in fact, as we remarked a short time since, there is no reason to believe that it will be largely in excess of the population in 1880, when it was forty thousand four hundred and forty-one. The populations of Arizona and Los Angeles city are probably about the same.

Arizona is not the only political division of the Pacific Coast which has fallen far short of its expectations. The silver-producing regions have been having a hard time of it during the past ten years, owing to the unfriendly silver legislation of 1873. Nevada, which is not a Territory, but a full-blown State, finds itself in even a worse fix than Arizona. A recent editor comment by the San Francisco Call on the situation in that State has caused much indignation among the Nevada delegation at Washington. The following are some of the Call's remarks, which are fully justified by the circumstances:

Upon the system which enables twelve thousand and five hundred voters in Nevada to elect two Senators and one Representative to Washington, it is not necessary to dwell. A more pressing question is how shall these twelve thousand and five hundred voters raise the money to carry on a government with a swindling and avaricious system? Legislate a system of sixty men, a school system, a judiciary system and a number of county organizations? The burden is manifestly heavier than they can bear. It would not have been borne quietly by the people if they had been chosen to share it. The system which enables them to be kept. Sooner or later the people of the State will be brought face to face with the fact that they cannot afford to maintain their organization. What will they do then?

There is hope, however, for both Arizona and Nevada. The stimulating effect of the recent silver legislation upon mining, all along the coast, will be immediate and very marked. We are justified in expecting that, by 1900, both Arizona and Nevada will be States with a respectable population to support their dignity and pay their official expenses.

AN AMERICAN FEUDAL BARON.

A New York dispatch announces that a wealthy Frenchman named Grammont is about to erect on high ground overlooking Narragansett Bay a feudal castle of the old style, in which he will play the feudal baron, surrounded by retainers who will wear the titles of knights, esquires, pages, men-at-arms, etc. The castle will be turreted, pierced for archers after the style of the twelfth century, with sally-ports, posterns, portcullises, battlements, keep and all the medieval specialties. The banquet hall will be like those in which feudal barons dined, with all their servants and vassals. His establishment will contain troubadours for the revival of minstrelsy. The men-at-arms will be uniformed according to the style that prevailed during the time of Charles the Bold, the Burgundian costume being the most picturesque, according to Mr. Grammont's thinking. He has a large property, a part of which will be divided into holdings among his men, who will render him service in return. He will introduce hunting with falcons and will have a banner of his own to fly. All this fun will be expensive, but Mr. Grammont says he is willing to expend $50,000 a year on his project.

It is stated that Christopher A. Buckley, now that he is home again, will assume active charge of the campaign and will make his headquarters at the county committee rooms, on Market street, San Francisco.

Our plutocracy has been wanting to dispel its snuff. Tuxedo Park will be nowhere. That is merely a sort of exclusive communistic imitation of an English country seat. Lorillard's imagination never rose so high as sally-ports, vassals and troubadours. His stopped at plain modern livery. Now we may expect to see feudal castles arise on every commanding eminence along the Atlantic coast, and retired pork-packer and contractors, with more money than brains, will establish themselves as medieval barons, with posterns, portcullises and all the rest of it. A portcullis is a useful thing to have in the family in case one should have to stand off the Sheriff. The following is the official programme:

Thursday, July 31—Go into camp, as arranged for, etc. Friday, Aug. 1—Formal opening of camp with morning gun salute, guard mount, surceau's call, fatigues call, drill, dress parade, etc. (to be carried on during the entire encampment). In the evening, formal reception by the Commanding General, followed by a grand ball in the hallroom of the del Coronado, to close with dancing.

Saturday, August 2—Entertainment programme, etc. Sunday, Aug. 3—Swimming, bathing, fishing and exercises of various kinds, closing with a ball in del Coronado.

Sunday, August 4—Church services during the day. Monday, Aug. 5—Dinner, dancing, and a grand ball in the hallroom of del Coronado, and a grand ball in the hallroom of del Coronado.

Tuesday, August 6—Los Angeles day. Annual election of encampment officers in the morning. Afternoon, exercises consisting of orations, literary and musical entertainment, and dancing in the evening.

Wednesday, Aug. 7—Red Wing, Minn. The exercises to be carried on under the management of the W. R. C. Mrs. Alice Pitch, President. Look out for an interesting programme.

Thursday, August 8—San Diego day. Parade in San Diego, to close in the evening with a grand naval engagement on the bay of San Diego and Glorieta Bay between the Union forces and the filibusters.

Friday, August 9—Strike tents and break camp.

AFTER HER CHILD.

Another Move in the Delbasty Case.

Jean Delbasty, the Frenchman who got into a row with his wife on Aliso street a few nights ago over the possession of their child, was arrested yesterday by Detective Bosquill on a warrant charging him with adultery.

Delbasty, it seems, charges that some three years ago he separated from his wife in Bordesux, France, and that for some offense she was sent to prison. The child was born in the custody of his wife and she finally settled in America.

Another rumor that caused great indignation accused the Captain of ordering the cabin door locked and keeping the people inside. Miss Aggie Barton of Lake City, one of those rescued from the barge, says all the women and children were ordered into the cabin from the barge. It was natural for the Captain to do this, as it was in the dark and the rain and he had made it extremely disagreeable to remain on the barge among the passengers who had been drinking and whose actions drove the women and children to the cabin. This fact may be the ground for the action.

Previous to that most of the women left the barge for the steamer, telling the engineers a party of men on the barge were drunk and had been acting in an objectionable manner and they would not stop them. The steamer was not locked, if not locked, when the rescuers reached the steamer, and everything indicated they had been closed throughout the gale.

THE CAPTAIN DEFENDED.

Judge Bayrel of Argyle, who was on the boat, gives positive evidence against the charge of drunkenness. He says the Captain was not only sober but was fully conscious of the presence of the storm, although not fully appreciating its gravity. The Captain walked through the cabin quietly, trying to calm the excited passengers, telling them he did not think there was any danger, but if they wished they could put on life preservers and prepare for the worst possibility. A few minutes later he ordered the men to make the steerage.

On the other hand, the engineer says the Captain thought the barge safer than the steamer and sent an order down to the cabin for the women and children to go on the barge. Instead of carrying the order correctly the man told them to stay in the cabin and lock the door, which they did.

Three British warships have suddenly left Halifax.

BLAMING THE CAPTAIN.

Capt. Wetheren, who has not been seen since yesterday noon, told a citizen of Red Wing the number on board the boat at the time of the disaster would not exceed 170. A Red Wing man denied the Captain's figures as over thirty below the truth, and accused both the Captain and crew of being drunk and unfit to have charge of the boat at such a time. There is no proof of such a state of affairs. There were those on the barge among the passengers who had been drinking and whose actions drove the women and children to the cabin. This fact may be the ground for the action.

our dealing on the part of the Commissioner that would be a sufficient reason for him to give his vote for an investigation.

Mr. Cannon said he did not go so far as the gentleman from Ohio. A charge on the part of a member of Congress (who frequently did not weigh his words,) of maladministration and a bad executive officer, was not sufficient to warrant the House to order an investigation. It must be a specific charge, for which the Representative made himself responsible. He must state such facts and circumstances as would satisfy the House that an investigation ought to be made.

Mr. Houk of Tennessee offered an amendment providing that persons employed under this bill be apportioned among the Congress districts of the several States and Territories not now having any quota of employees under the existing law. Abstained on a point of order.

During the colloquy between Messrs. Cannon and Houk concerning the civil service law, there was considerable warmth of expression.

Finally the committee rose, the bill passed and the House adjourned.

The Frivolous Woman.

"The" in Philadelphia Press.

There was an article the other day in one of the papers headed: "Let us get rid of the frivolous woman." I feel sure that this article was written by a woman who had never been frivolous, whose backbone was probably of cast-iron, and who didn't know the joys of pure frivolity. The frivolous woman is much more necessary to the Nation than a president. She is as delightful as fresh soda, and as easily shut off. She is a rest after the cares of the day, and her frivolity becomes charming if she couples prettiness with it. Frivolous women do the mischief in this world. Women who affect frivolity frequently do. Everybody would lose by the disappearance of the frivolous woman. Business would stop, no classes for general culture would be formed, and women would be as uninteresting and tiresome as most of the men. The charm of a frivolous woman is the same as that of a baby, irresponsibility, and yet there have been frivolous women who, when the time came, could do great things—could endure pain without wincing—could smile and make the best of poverty—or, putting their dainty shoulders to the wheel, could help the household out of the deep mire into which it had gotten. A frivolous woman is like yeast—she rises equal to the occasion, and that's all you want her to do. Bring a man home from a busy day, put him down to the dinner table, and he would much rather hear the idle chat—chat that is at once amusing and interesting—of a frivolous woman than the weighty argument on political economy that is always possible to the woman with an iron frame. Women framed in iron mentally and physically, who couldn't bend to a frill or curve to a friv, and the women who make men think that women are wiser not to know anything. Let a woman know everything under the heavens that she wants, but let her learn when to use this knowledge. Fired at a tired man, it is a boomerang that will come back and strike her dead.

A Bill to Pension the Widow of Gen. Fremont—Belknap's Course in Corea Explained—Notes.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—[By the Associated Press.] The President and Secretary Proctor are seriously considering a proposition advocated by several prominent army officers for the abolition of the present system of division commands and to have military affairs administered hereafter through department commands.

In case a change is made, a major-general will be placed in command of each of the two important departments, the Atlantic and Pacific, and the interior department will be commanded by brigadier-generals, all of whom will report direct to Maj.-Gen. Schofield, commanding the army.

THE CLAYTON CASE.

Breckinridge's Political Methods Severely Dounced.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—[By the Associated Press.] The House Committee on Elections today heard arguments by Judge John McClure of Arkansas, Clayton's representative upon the Breckinridge election case. Judge McClure began his argument by attacking Breckinridge in reply to certain statements made by that gentleman as exhibited in the record. He charged that Breckinridge had sought to incite his partisans to treat him (McClure) as they had treated Clayton. He resented the effort, which, he said, had been made to make the people of Arkansas responsible for a series of crimes which he sought to ascribe to the supporters of a general plan carried out by politicians and bullet-box staffers and stealers, with the deliberate purpose to reverse the will of the people at the polls.

BELKNAP'S IN COREA.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Read Adm. Belknap, commanding the naval forces on the Asiatic station, has informed the Navy Department that there is no truth in the report that he took possession of the King's palace at Seoul during the recent trouble in Corea, and that all he did on the occasion in question was to station troops in the United States legation building for the protection of American subjects and property. They were subsequently withdrawn, as follows:

Mr. W. W. Robinson and children leave this morning for a two weeks' tour to Corea.

Mr. J. O. Newhall came down from Newhall yesterday, and is stopping at the Hollenbeck.

Over a Horse and Buggy.

At 2 o'clock this morning H. M. Elliott, a paper-hanger, was arrested by Officer Fay and booked at the police station for grand larceny. He hired a carriage from Webber's stable, on Downey avenue, for a few hours, and when he did not return on time a complaint was lodged at the police station. Officer Fay caught him on Franklin and Broadway. At the station he stated that a man named Frick and two girls were with him. One of the girls was injured at Elmera and the two devoured and did not return until last night. He claims that he was going to get money to pay for the team when the officer ran him in.

Morphine Pills.

At 1 o'clock this morning a telephone message from Lena Sheppard's place on Alameda street to the police station stated that Sidney Carlton's nurse had taken an overdose of morphine by mistake. Officer Huston visited the house and secured the services of Dr. Cole. The woman took a dose of morphine pills under the belief that she was taking a harmless brand. As soon as she discovered her mistake she took a dose of salt water and got rid of the pills by vomiting and was out of danger when the Doctor arrived. The women in the house refused to make known her name.

Mrs. John Rushton of South Hancock street left last evening for Kansas City to visit friends. She will be absent from the city a couple of months.

The fire department was called out yesterday for a short run to the old dumping ground, where the manure heap was ignited and fire and smoke belched forth.

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

A MAGNIFICENT SALE IN ACTIVE PREPARATION.

It Will Astonish the Sleepy and Be a Genuine Shock to the So-called Live Ones—
Read the List.

PEOPLE'S STORE,

WEDNESDAY, July 10, 1890.

In every walk of life, it is the highest or the lowest, there is considerable satisfaction in doing whatever is undertaken in a thorough, painstaking and worthy manner.

Every one knows that the People's Store never does anything in a shoddy manner. We throw out entire energies into whatever we do, so as to be able to say, it cannot be done in a better or more conscientious manner.

We are at present preparing a sale of great magnitude—a sale that will open the eyes of sleepy ones, electrify the self-assuring and self-styled live ones, and will astonish the high-striking fellows that claim that they can move heaven and earth—according to the space they buy and the amount they monthly pay for printers' ink.

For today we have a list of items, true genuine bargains every one of them. Look the list over carefully and get your wants supplied at our establishment, whose sole aim is to keep prices right, do everything right and treat you right. We think we succeeded.
